

ORCHESTRA IN REHEARSAL TUESDAY

Finishing Touches Being Added At Auditorium for Free Opening Tomorrow Night.

The Dothan orchestra which will play for the opening of the city hall auditorium Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock held a rehearsal this morning. The selections chosen for the occasion

John Crain, the leader with his ever ready violin, was on hand, directing the work. Other members of the orchestra present were Mrs. Marvic Harrison piano, Ezell Watson, clarinet, Charlie Blum, cornet, Miss L. L. Baker, drums, Raymond Watson, saxophone.

On the Stage.

Aside from the harmony building out of the orchestra pit, it is timely to note that the stage also presented a busy scene—everywhere men were working getting every little detail in readiness for opening night. Cut, Engineer George L. Heller and W. F. Martin were among those present on the stage. Martin was assisting in hanging up spot light preparatory to turning on the "juice" and Heller was trying out the vacuum cleaner.

Has Speaking Tube

A speaking tube has been installed connecting the stage with the upper dressing room and in this little contrivance, George Heller predicts the death of "spunk." "Some night or the other," he says, "somebody will get a little bit of spunk and he'll pump off a few sentences. In so doing, he'll be known this is the first speaking tube installed in Dothan."

FOUR SUBMARINES GOING TO HONOLULU

Will Establish a New Record if Made.

San Francisco, Oct. 1.—Four submarines of the K type today were proceeding under their own power to Honolulu a journey of 2200 miles. The voyage if made without help will establish a new long distance cruise for United States submarines.

Accompanying the submarine were the cruiser Maryland, naval collier Ansham, the tug Ironquois and the destroyer Lawrence.

MUST FIRST CLOSE ARABIC CASE SAYS WILSON

Washington, Oct. 4.—Administration officials at the White House today made it plain that at the present time there is absolutely no tension in the negotiations under way between Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador and Secretary of State Lansing. While no official statement was made on the situation it was learned that the assurances that have been made by the German ambassador are absolutely satisfactory as far as they have gone.

By John Edwin Nevin

Washington, Oct. 4.—President Wilson still refuses to permit any agreement on the submarine matters in dispute between the United States and Germany until the Arabic sinking is a closed incident. As a result another delay in reaching an amicable settlement of all points in dispute has resulted.

Following a conference last night between Secretary of State Lansing and the president, the intimation was obtained in official circles today that Count von Bernstorff is to be told that the last suggestion conveyed by him to Secretary Lansing does not meet the requirements of the president. The point at issue in the Arabic case in the opinion of the president is whether the option of a submarine condemnation is to govern whether a passenger carrying liner is to be sunk.

The president is understood to hold that if the German orders to her submarine commanders were issued in good faith that they must not attack passenger liners without warning then the attack on the Arabic was well at justice. The submarine could have submerged in his opinion instead of having torpedoed the liner.

Must Disavow Attack

Because of the precedent involved it is understood that the president insists that Germany shall disavow the attack on the White Star liner and ordering in the future no vessel should be attacked under similar circumstances.

The German ambassador is expected to come here very shortly further to discuss the question. While there is a noticeable feeling of disappointment in official quarters that no material progress was made on Saturday it is pointed out that inasmuch as the ambassador is in a conciliatory mood he can be expected to do all in his power to meet the wishes of the president. He will be clothed with full powers by his government to settle the submarine issue and it is believed that when Secretary Lansing explains that the president has decided to do the half way measure will supplement the latest note in which it is understood Germany admits that her submarine commander probably was in error in sinking the Arabic by a frank disavowal of intent. If that is done the case will be plain sailing.

The Turkish capital is not only threatened from Gallipoli and by the Allied fleets but by the British force which have again defeated a Turkish army near Baghdad.

BUCK DREW UNDER BOND

Buck Drew charged with assault with intent to murder was arraigned before Probate Judge A. C. Crawford for a preliminary hearing yesterday and was allowed bond in the sum of $400.

It is alleged that in a fight at Drew shot a Mr. Dismukes in the arm inflicting a painful wound. The claim has been made that the shooting was accidental and that the victim was not discharged intentionally. He then lives in the Georgia Cross Roads community.

Negro Performs New Pistol Trick

'Bang' went a report

Scene two members of a local boarding house popping out of windows and wondering if the first installment of the European war had reached Dothan.

It had not.

Merely a case of a hall with a center negro priming, with an old fashioned cup and ball pistol. As is frequently true with unloaded pistols, the thing went off without warning and the negro received a painful injury.

A physician who happened to live nearby hastened to the scene to examine the negro and assist him if possible.

The doctor found blood pouring from the negro's forehead and he saw an ugly looking wound.

But there was no ball in sight. Then the secret leaked out—the pistol had "reared back" and kicked the negro in the forehead.

"I declare for goodness white folks I didn't know dat pistol was loaded. And neither did he know it would kick."

T. D. Wells of Ashton, Ill., was here yesterday and bought an Overland roadster from H. B. Law.

COTTON PRICES SENT SKYWARD BY CROP REPORT

New York, Oct. 4.—Immediately after the announcement of the government's crop report indicating a crop of 10,000,000 bales, the smallest since 1901, the market assumed considerable activity and strength. Futures advanced more than $1 per bale in a few minutes and all futures were soon up from 18 to 60 points over Saturday's closing prices.

The government's figures were considerably under previous private estimates and caused a large buying movement.

December contracts sold up to 12 1/2, January to 12 7/8, and May to 12 1/4 within half an hour after the publication of the condition figures or more than $2 per bale above the closing figures of Saturday and in to new high ground for the season.

On the advance toward the end of last month January contracts sold at 12 7/8 but had sold for a substantial reaction having touched 11 5/8 last Friday. The advance today carried the market $1 1/2 a bale above that level.

SLATON HOME AGAIN

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 1.—Former Governor John M. Slaton arrived here to report on the Kansas City Special of the Southern Railway, just before 10 o'clock. He was met by several personal friends and drove from the station to his home.

FRANK ROMANO NOT CONVICTED

Charges of violating the prohibition laws and against Frank Romano who operates a front stand on E. 1st street were withdrawn yesterday when the defendant was arraigned before Judge Crawford. The case ended with Romano paying the court costs.

Deputy sheriffs raided Romano's place a few weeks ago and it is alleged they found more liquor in hand than the law allows. It is understood that the defendant was prepared to prove that the whisky did not belong to him but that it was left in his place by other parties.

NOTORIOUS PRISONER ESCAPES FROM MINES

Ervin Pope, at Aldridge, for Life, Missing

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 1.—Ervin Pope, probably the most notorious negro prisoner in the criminal annals of Alabama, escaped Friday night from Aldridge mine where he was serving a life sentence for the murder of J. B. McClurkin, a prominent Calhoun county planter. News of the escape was received here Monday morning in a long distance telephone call to Chief Egan.

Ervin Pope has stood five times within the shadow of the gallows. Five times he was sentenced to hanging and five times was the case reversed and pardoned by the supreme court. Shortly before he was to have been executed his sentence was commuted by Governor O'Neal to life imprisonment. Pope had served on about six months of his life sentence when he broke jail. A posse is scouring the country wide for him in the vicinity of the Aldridge mine.

Pope was kept in the county jail in Birmingham for five or six days during which time his case went to and from the lower to the supreme court.

SEED ARE HIGH IN HARTFORD

Cotton seed sold for $10.00 per ton in Hartford yesterday according to United States Marshal Sheehan and others. This is an unusually high price for cotton seed but such figures were paid in Hartford it reports by train.

MEXICAN SITUATION GROWS GRAVE WHILE SEC. LANSING IS AWAY

Recognition of Any Faction Seems Unlikely

Washington, Oct. 4.—Secretary Lansing is back at his desk at the state department today after a vacation of two weeks. Found that the Mexican situation had assumed several grave aspects in his absence. Immediate recognition of any faction now seems remote. As a preliminary to the conference here next Saturday between Mr. Lansing and the six Latin American envoys who are seeking a way out of Mexico troubles the secretary during the week will receive at the state department representatives of both the Carranza and Villa factions.

NAT GLAD TO GET AWAY FROM CALIF

Ocean Park Surrenders Most Celebrated Citizen.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 1.—Ocean Park today surrendered to some other city directory the most celebrated name on its roll of citizens. Nat C. Goodwin. Among the packed boxes, excelsior and unadorned interior of his handsome cottage at Ocean front and Hart Avenue, Nat Goodwin said today.

I am mighty glad to get away from here.

And then he made some observations on his career and some pitfalls that had beset his pathway and of how he has lost $150,000 since he came to California nine years ago as one of its citizens.

WILL LAY KEEL OF SUPER-DREADNAUGHT

All New York Congressmen Will Attend.

New York, Oct. 4.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Mayor Mitchell and all local congressmen will attend the laying of the keel of the superdreadnaught California in the navy yard, Brooklyn on October 14. The program will be brief. Immediately after the invocation the two and a half ton keel plate will be placed in position and Commander George H. Rock, construction officer of the yard, will install the first bolt. The remaining bolts will be placed by the sons of officers attached to the yard.

STEAMER GOES ASHORE

Madrid, Oct. 4.—The steamer Highland Warrior is ashore off Cape Prior near Corunna, according to dispatches received here early today. Twenty-nine passengers and eighty members of the crew were saved, it was stated.

REVENUERS IN CHASE WITH YOUNG GIRL

10-Year-Old Child Grabs Still and Runs When Revenue Officers Appear—Distillery Destroyed.

A young girl who appeared to be about ten years old grabbed a whiskey still and ran through the field with it when Deputy United States Marshal Fred Sheehan, Deputy Collector Robinson and Clarence May raided a distillery near the residence of Ellsma Green in the vicinity of Underwood's mill this county, yesterday.

The little girl was overtaken by the officers and the distillery was seized. The apparatus used in making the illicit liquor was destroyed. The distillery was located in a room near the residence of Green.

According to the officers the children were helping around the distillery. They say that one woman was so badly frightened that she apparently fainted and went to bed. They insisted on her getting up and a quantity of liquor in a bottle was found in bed. Deputy Sheehan says that is an old trick with moonshiners—to faint and take a bottle of liquor to bed with them.

WILSON WILL ATTEND WORLD SERIES GAME

PROMI QUESTION IS UP IN MINNEAPOLIS

Indications are That the City Will Go Wet.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 4.—The question of wiping out the 400 saloons in Minneapolis was being voted on today after one of the hottest political campaigns in the history of the city.

The indications were that Minneapolis would cast a majority for remaining wet and thus carry the entire county, which is voting under the option county law.

John Lund, former governor, and President Wilson's recent envoy to Mexico, took an active part in the fight for the dry side.

The wet campaign was waged by the Business Men's Educational league, an alliance of hotel, cafe and business men.

INSTITUT AND EUGENICS

(Brunswick, Ga. News.)

Says Dr. Samuel C. Kohn,

psychological expert of the Chicago House of Correction and spokesman of the American Genetic association:

"Follow your instincts if you want to be a eugenist. Obey the impulse and put no trust in the superficial reasoning of the intellect."

The belief that the reasoning

power of the individual is a safeguard to conduct he calls a "dangerous superstition." Reason, he argues, always leads on to acts

that are hostile to the interests of the race. Instinct is incomparably superior as a guide to action. "It regulates conduct in the interest of the species at every point."

By instinct he means the working of the subconscious mind

which "directs most of his actions and directs them along eu-

genic lines."

This certainly is turning the tables on the eugenists with a vengeance. It is a demand for the repudiation of all effort to improve the human stock by the exercise of human reason. It holds as vicious and unwise all control of human weakness and error, and presumably of human passion. The instincts, animal or spiritual, are to have their own way.

Eugenic marriages, then, are wrong, because it is contrary to nature to use one's intellect in such matters. Love is the only eugenist. Mutual attraction, not physical perfection, is the test.

Experienced age is rebuked; un-headed youth justified. An elopement is the most sensible of weddings. Love at first sight

is an infallible eugenic proof that a man and woman are intended for each other and for the advancement of the race.

If this doctrine is sound, what is the use of trying to be reasonable about anything. Why not trust blindly to instinct in everything and do absolutely as we

please from moment to moment,

like the animals?

As a matter of fact, Dr.

Kohn is probably as far wrong as his extreme opposites, the rational eugenists who think they can produce a race of super-men

by mating human beings as they do horses, cattle and chicken.

It is doubtless just as necessary to mix a reasonable amount of common sense with the doctor's instinct as it is to mix the finer human emotions with the eugenist's mathematical mating schemes.

We're opposed to this movement to revise the calendar so as to have thirteen months unless they make the extra month

without using any Mondays.

A Dothan man says the difference between a farmer and an agriculturist is that the farmer makes his money on the farm and spends it in town while the agriculturist makes it in town and spends it on the farm.

Think of the State of Alabama buying 150,000 tons of mixed feed, such as oats, alfalfa and hay, when it could sell a few hundred thousands tons.

ter had more oats than he could

THE WORST DISEASE.

"When we come down to gunmetal spikes," said the retic-

ed merchant, "the worst afflic-tion a man can have is earache.

I had it last night, and never before did I know what real pain

is, when it has the bark on it.

Toothache is mere child's play compared with it. My ear felt as large as a washtub, and I suppose I poured a quart of liniment into it before I got relief."

"The worst affliction in the world is whatever we happen to have when passing a given point,"

explained the hotel keeper. "At the hour of going to press I have an active corn which imagines

itself to be Vesuvius, and it seems to me I am all feet. I haven't much patience with a man who comes around of a boasting trifling business like the earache."

There isn't a bit of satisfaction

in having a corn, because you can't attract any attention when you tell of your sufferings. I have spoken of the matter to a number of my friends and they all looked bored, and the first chance they got they began telling of their own sufferings which they described as genuine, and not a cheap imitation got up to deceive the public.

"Every man naturally wants to boast of his disease. When he is young he hasn't any disease, as a rule, and so he brags of his skill as a tenor singer, or as a long distance jumper, or of some physical ability. When I was young I won a medal at a wrestling contest in a gymnasium

and it served as a topic of conversation for ten years, until I was married, and had a little son named after me. Then this scion of a noble house displayed the medal, and for a good many years

I bragged of little Clarence, and repeated his cunning sayings, until I hadn't a friend left, and when I wanted to talk to somebody I had to hire a man by the hour, and he always struck for higher wages before I had talked fifteen minutes.

"When I reached middle age

I built a fine home, and I bragged about that for a long time.

But now that I am old, such matters don't interest me. Clarence has grown up and has his own wiskers, and my home was sold long ago, and, while I insist that this hotel is the best car-

avansary of its kind, I don't care

to talk about it all the time.

People can come and see it for themselves. But I must have something to talk about, and I know of nothing more absorbing than my corn. It occupies my attention day and night when it's on the warpath, and I hold that it's worse than the earache

because it hurts more, and because people won't listen to me

when I try to do justice to it.

"A man can stand anything if his friends will listen to his tale of woe. You will talk about your earache for several days, and most people will listen, for ear-

ache is a refined sort of disease, which age has not withered nor custom staled. You will be thankful that you had the disease

for you were growing tired of talking about the war, and the high cost of living, and the mistakes of Congress, and were just growing desperate for a new topic when that outbreak of ear-

ache dissipated all your troubles and made you feel like a new man. In a few days, however,

the story will be growing stale,

and then you'll have to invent some fresh sufferings. You'll be telling me you had inflammatory rheumatism, or something appal-

THE DOTHAN EAGLE

ing.

"When a man begins bragging

of his sufferings he can't talk about the agony you endured a week ago. Anguish more than a days old looks self worn, and people will tell you to put it on the remnant counter. Now, my corn—"

"I don't want to hear about your killy old corn," snored the retired merchant.

THE MARKETS BUREAU.

In connection with the department of agriculture, there has been established a department of markets. Its object is to keep the farmers of Alabama

posted as to where they can get the best market for anything

they raise on the farm, outside of cotton. If a farmer has a few hundred bushels of velvet beans,

or peanuts, or other product than he doesn't know just where to find the market, he can get in touch with a buyer by taking it up with Commissioner Wade at Montgomery.

Complete Mobilization

Nich, Bulgaria.
Oct. 5th, 1915.

Hon. B. G. Farmer.

Dothan, Ala.

My Dear Byrd:

Complete mobilization spells the constant condition of several of the bordering countries around the scene of action of this life scrap, which means that these other countries are ready to throw their hats in the ring at any time.

This condition reminds me of my friend Bob Parker, the tailor. He has his army of cutters, makers, trimmers, etc., ready at all times to attack my order that comes in and they make short work of dispatching the suit or coat and getting it on your back when you want it.

That's one reason why Bob will always get my business—I can get it when I want it.

Yours,

Bill.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr.

Hughes Would Die, But

One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advice from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good.

I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thornd's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Thornd's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

Short Cotton Crop Sends Prices Up

Washington, Oct. 4.—A heavy decline in the condition of the growing cotton crop, almost double the average decline of the last ten years, during September, has decreased the production prospects forecast earlier in the season by almost a million bales.

The Department of Agriculture today estimated the crop at 10,950,000 equivalent 500-pound bales, which would be the smallest crop since 1909.

In announcing the condition report and production estimate, the Crop Reporting Board made the following statement: "The cotton crop condition declined 8 1/2 points during the month August 25 to September 25, which compared with an average decline in the same period in the past ten years of 4 1/2 points. The estimated condition of 60.8 per cent of normal on September 25 forecasts a yield per acre of about 168 pounds and a total production following a reduction of one per cent from planted area for abandonment of about 10,570,000 bales. Last year's production was 16,135,000 bales and the 1914 crop 14,156,000. A crop less than 11,000,000 bales would be smaller than any crop since 1909.

"The unusual deterioration has been due principally to the extremes of weather conditions, periods of excessive rainfall, cold weather and drought having characterized the season in most of the cotton belt. Lack of fertilizer and poor quality of that used has been an unfavorable factor in the eastern portion of the belt. There is little promise of a top crop except in the northern portion of the belt, due to the climatic conditions and the unusual activity of the boll weevil, and where a top crop is set in the northern portions of the belt, the latest report of the crop there makes realization dependent upon future favorable weather and late frost.

"The month, much of it warm and dry, has been generally favorable to picking and a much larger percentage of the crop is picked to this date than in the usual year. In much of the southern portion of the belt picking is far advanced and in some sections there picking is practically completed."

Hollin Says Cotton Crop Will Not Exceed 10,000,000.

Washington, Oct. 4. Congressman Hollin, who left for Alabama last night, in information he received directly from Commissioners of Agriculture in cotton-growing states, estimating total crop as barely in excess of ten million bales. Mr. Hollin prepared a statement in which the probable yield in bales by States was as follows for those given below: Alabama 900,000; Georgia 1,500,000; Mississippi 1,100,000; Tennessee 2,210,000; Texas 3,400,000.

Before leaving Washington Congressman Hollin insisted vigorously that conditions are such that the price of cotton is bound to advance materially within the next two months.

Alto L. Eadie, well-to-do farmer of route 7, was here this morning on business.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctors told me it was without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 43 years of age, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

EAT LESS MEAT

IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

In almost every home in the land Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the recognized standard household remedy for female ills, thousands of American women owe their good health to it. Made from the roots and herbs of the field, it is a simple remedy in which suffering women may place perfect confidence. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. Adv.

Dandruff Soon Reins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when resting; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

BRAIN-WORKERS AND COLDS

Science Has Proved That the Mentally Quick Are Most Susceptible to Annoying Complaint.

In a comprehensive study of the causes of "catching cold," which has just been made by Dr. C. M. Richter, it has been determined that the quick-witted and those who use their brains a good deal catch cold much more easily than those who do little brain-work and are mentally slow. Wherever a case was found of someone who was extremely susceptible to influenza or even simple cold, either that person was engaged in some professional work, or there was considerable tax upon him in factory or in office, or else his work required some especially keen exercise of the mind. The mentally heavy, slow-going kind of person very rarely has a cold. In working out this problem it was found that resistance to cold is not so much a matter of what one wears as of what one is. It is those people who suffer most keenly when it is very cold or very hot, who have a headache when they face a high wind, whose hair crackles with electricity when they comb it—in a word, those who are nervous and highly organized most readily fall victims to the insidious "colds in the head."

VERY UNCERTAIN.

"Well, how much longer do you expect to stand there holding that telephone receiver to your ear?" asked the impatient person.

"I'm sure I don't know," replied the subdued-looking man, as he carefully placed his hand over the transmitter, so his words could not be heard at the other end of the line. "I don't detect the slightest note of weariness in my wife's voice so far."

SAFETY FIRST.

"I must say Dubson is a prudent lover, anyhow."

"What makes you think so?"

"I noticed him last Sunday shooting the chute with his fiancée, Miss Plumply."

"Well?"

"He invariably put her in front."

THE CURRENT TOPIC.

"It's a beautiful day."

"Yes," replied O. U. Gronitach, the noted pessimist, "but unseasonable for this time of the year."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

"Is she?"

"Why, didn't you ever hear her talk?"

QUITE NATURAL.

"These spelling bees are getting to be very lively, aren't they?"

PRETTY BIG FORCE.

"Have you much of a police force in this village?" asked the city man in the country.

"We certainly have," replied the native; "he weighs 310 pounds."

THE CASE STATED.

"I hear that Jim told Jack if he married Helen, Jack's marriage to her would be a death blow."

"He didn't say that exactly. He said in such a case Jack would be ringing his bell."

THE NEW METHOD.

"How are you going to spend your vacation this year?"

"We've decided to go somewhere up in the country to get a taste of city life."

WANTS 13 JURORS
IN SCHMIDT CASE

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 4.—When the trial of M. A. Schmidt charged with complicity in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building, began today in Judge Frank Willis' court, District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine asked that thirteen jurors instead of twelve be chosen to hear the case.

It is believed that it will require at least two months to hear the evidence presented by the prosecution and the defense.

Schmidt was certain today that he would be acquitted.
